NAVY DECLASSIFICATION/RELEASE INSTRUCTIONS ON FILE

Dear Mr. Baird:

As in the past, the Curriculum of the U.S. Naval Intelligence School, Postgraduate Department, includes in the course on Observation periods set aside for presentations entitled "Sketching" and [redacted] In previous years the Central Intelligence Agency has provided guest lecturers to assist in meeting the course objectives, the services of guest speakers from the Central Intelligence Agency are again requested for the following lecturers:

25X1B

25X1A

25X1B

- Fri. 13 October 1961*
✓ 1230 - 1530, ~~Tuesday 17 October 1961~~ Sketching as an Aid in Reporting [redacted]
✓ 1300 - 1500, Tuesday 31 October 1961 [redacted]

This confirms informal discussions made with both speakers. Either LCDR J.M. McNabb, USN or LCDR R.S. Pattee, USN, (Code 1215, ext. 458) of the Naval Intelligence School Faculty is authorized to make any further arrangements necessary.

This year's Postgraduate class consists of forty-six Naval officer students, ranging in rank from Lieutenant junior grade to Lieutenant commander. Each officer student has a Top Secret Security clearance.

I wish to express my appreciation to each of the requested speakers for their contributions to past Postgraduate classes and again to you for making their services available. Their presentations to both the Postgraduate and other courses at the school have always been outstanding.
